D. T.'s And Juniors Plan For Weekend

Dance And Show To Be Featured

An afternoon dance at Alpha Delta Phi, sponsored by D. T., the Sophomore Honor Society, and a variety show, put on by the Junior Class, in the Hall of Commons at 8:00, will highlight the mid-April weekend festivities.

Originally planning two separate activities, D. T. and the Class of 1951 decided to combine their efforts and produce one big program in order to achieve maximum participation in each. Tickets for both affairs are on sale for $1.25.

The dance, which will begin at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon, will feature the music of Bill Ashland's five piece combo. Jack Banks, President of D. T. and chairman of the dance, has announced that "upwards of 50 beautiful girls from Cazenovia" will be here for the affair.

Gallie Crump, who is in charge of the Variety Show, stated yesterday that the production will be a three act comedy, depicting the first few weeks of freshman Clancy Kirkland, portrayed by Tom Meehan. Eleven skits by members of the Junior Class will make up the comedy.

Freshman Derry Hall has been enlisted by Crump to take charge of the music for the production. He has organized an eight piece band, in which he will play piano, and has done most of the arranging of the music to be played. The members of the orchestra have been drawn from all classes and the faculty, represented by Frank Piano, who has most recently won fame with his Jimmy Durante act in the faculty Variety Show.

Dutch Baldwin is chairman of the committee in charge of lighting and sets, which have been donated for the occasion by the Charlatans. Crump announced that tickets for the Show will be sold at the door for $.50.

Spring Farce Cast Selected By Charlatans

In their most ambitious undertaking since the production of Saint Joan, the Charlatans will present Thornton Wilder's The Skin of Our Teeth in the Hall of Commons, May 12 and 13 with Robert Markel, Nat Hartshorne, Al Flesh and Tom Meehan in the leading roles.

Tracing the history of all mankind in a farcical, comic-strip form, the play portrays the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Antrobus, representing man and his wife through the ages, and their son, Henry. It was first produced on Broadway in 1942 and starred Tallulah Bankhead, Frederick March, Florence Eldridge and Montgomery Clift.

Many At Tryouts

Members of the cast were announced Wednesday by Doug Johnson, President of the club, who stated that, "There was an unexpectedly large turnout at the three nights of tryouts." Those in the cast are:

Mr. John Eels Gives Lecture At Alpha Delt

By Carl Peterson

"The Pursuit of Happiness" was the subject of an address given Wednesday by Mr. John S. Eels, Jr., Chairman of the Department of English at Beloit College and descendent of Samuel Eels, founder of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

Mr. Eels began by asserting that no one is really able to "pursue" happiness, since happiness is more the by-product of one's other activities than the result of a conscious search. The assumption held by many that wealth constitutes happiness is obviously a false one, since happiness, unlike material things, cannot be purchased, but must be earned through one's service to his fellow men. Likewise attempts to find happiness by pursuing such things as amusement, physical health, glamour, power, or even by seeking to escape life will in the long run prove totally unrewarding, Mr. Eels asserted.

War Greatest Obstacle

According to Mr. Eels, the greatest single obstacle in the way of our finding happiness today is the ever-present danger of war. A life so precariously balanced on the brink of disaster seems to have little meaning. Our only resort in this situation is to clear ourselves of any sense of guilt we may have over circumstances beyond our control, and resolve to meet death bravely whenever it may come.

How then should one live in order to find true happiness? Mr. Eels feels this may be accomplished in two ways.

Work the Secret

One must first be a "craftsman." He must strive to do everything well, for "he who is slack in his work is a brother to the destroyer." If one diligently pursues his work, happiness will pursue him.

Next one must learn to love God, and since to love God is to love one's fellow man, a person truly desirous of happiness should always be tolerant and understanding of others.

Mr. Eels feels one may best atune oneself with God and obtain "mythical knowledge" of his will through meditation or "non-petitional" prayer. Only in this way can a person open what Matthew Arnold termed the "inward springs of one's being."

In closing, the speaker cited his ancestor, Samuel Eels, as an example of a man who found great happiness in life, yet was nevertheless able to face death bravely, a man who realized the full import of life in preparing the soul for immortality!

Brown, Mullett, Grant Elected By Classes

Jim Brown of Psi U, Ted Mullett of Alpha Delt, and Don Grant of Theta Delt have been elected Presidents of next year's Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes, respectively.

The run-off elections held in class meetings on Wednesday, April 5, also determined the Vice-Presidents and Secretary-Treasurers. Carl Menges, Sigma Phi, and Gallie Crump, DU, will hold these offices for next year's Senior Class.

Vice-President of the Class of '52 will be Rog Wood, DU, while Joe Hull of ELS will serve as Secretary-Treasurer. Next year's Sophomores will have Bill Carman, of DU, as Vice-President, and Charlie Bates, Sigma Phi, in the position Secretary-Treasurer.

Ruling On Hill Bus Expected From Supreme Court Soon

High Tribunal May Return Case To P S C Or Make Final Decision Next Week

By Bob Stern

The question of bus service between the Hill and Clinton is now in the lap of the Supreme Court of New York, 4th District. The final decision is expected to come sometime this week or next.

Until March, the case was being handled by the Utica Transit Company and the Public Service Commission. On March 9th, the PSC ordered that bus service be restored on or before the 20th. However, bus company officials were not satisfied and appealed to the Supreme Court. Judge Morehouse thereupon issued an injuction which gave the transit company a further delay until April 4th, at which time both parties appeared before the tribunal.

Question Court Jurisdiction

The attorney for the PSC expressed the belief that Court had no jurisdiction in the particular matter, and also declared that if it was a case for the Supreme Court, it must be handled by the Court which issued the injunction: namely, that in the New York City District.

Judge Morehouse said he thought this was a case for the Supreme Court, told Doran he would read up on the pertinent law, and told Robert Groben, attorney for the Utica Transit Company, to study the case.

Judge Morehouse said he would hand down a decision on the bases of both parties' reasoning.

It is believed that Groben will have submitted his defense by the end of the week.

Three Possibilities

Three possibilities exist at the present time. First, if the case is not one for the Supreme Court, then the PSC's former ruling will take immediate effect. Next if the Court does have jurisdiction, and if Doran is right in that the case must be handled by the Court in New York City, then a longer delay is expected before a decision is made one way or the other. Finally, if the case can legally be tried before the 4th District Court, Judge Morehouse will probably decide very shortly.

Although Judge Morehouse has been urged to hasten his decision in the interests of Hill residents, who have stated that they urgently need the bus service, the jurist pointed out that the people have managed for "30 or 40 years" without it, and therefore the matter cannot be of too vital concern.

14 Seniors Named To Phi Beta Kappa

Mr. David M. Ellis, Secretary of the Hamilton Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, announced in Wednesday chapel the election of fourteen members of the Senior Class to the National Scholastic Honorary organization.

The fourteen, largest number in history, are: Benjamin D. Allen; Dana K Ball; Thomas B. Bradley; Richard C. Cole; Murray Drabkin; John Fell; Frisbee Fuller; Donald Gardner; Berl Goldfuss; Warren Levin; Robert Price; John Seymour; Ernest Smith; and S Gilmer Towell.

Ambassador-at-Large Jessup Branded "Red" By McCarthy

By Jack Banks

Three weeks ago Wisconsin's Republican Senator Joseph R. McCarthy really asked for trouble. He charged that Ambassador-at-large Phillip C. Jessup had "an unusual affinity with Communist causes."

Roving Ambassador Jessup, '19, one of Hamilton's most distinguished graduates and a member of the Board of Trustees, hurried home from a round the-world trip to answer McCarthy's accusation. He brought with him laudatory letters from Gen. George C. Marshall and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Said the former: "I was shocked and distressed by the attack on your integrity." And Eisenhower said that "no one who has known you can for a moment question the depth or sincerity of your devotion to the principles of Americanism."

Dr. Jessup asserted that McCarthy's oft-repeated charges that the State Department was harboring "57 card-carrying Communists," were shaking the faith of foreign officials in the representatives of the United States Government abroad. They have raised many doubts as to whether the United States was really united in combating international Communism, he added.

The basis for the attack on Jessup was that, according to McCrathy, the present ambassador was in charge of the American Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations in 1942 and 43, when that organization received a $3500 donation from an alleged Communist. Actually, and as Jessup has recently said, the chairman of the American Council at that time was Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, president of the University of California. Jessup had been chairman at an earlier date.

Said Time Magazine of the whole affair: "His (McCarthy's) charge were so completely without evidence to support them that he had probably damaged no reputations permanently except his own."

Debate Plans Include Trips, J V Contests

Arnold Lerman, President of the Debate Club, today announced a schedule of home debates, including a Junior Varsity tournament on Saturday, April 22, on the question, "Resolved—that the United States should nationalize all basic non-agricultural industries."

April 19th—Fredonia State Teachers' College

April 22nd—Junior Varsity Tournament

April 25th—Oswego State Teachers' College

April 26th—Hobart College

April 29th—Rutgers University, Newark branch

According to Lerman, three trips are also planned for the members of the Hamilton Debate Club this month.

One group will travel to Central Massachusetts and Boston the week-end of April 27 to debate 12 schools, including Harvard, Amherst, Mt. Holyoke, M. I. T., Holy Cross and Wellesley. On the same week-end, several teams will also tour southern New York for eight debates with colleges including Wells, Keuka, Cornell and Hobart.

A group will also debate at Williams College at the same time in a tournament with New England colleges on the question of Euthanasia.

Was Los Chooses Schwarz, R. Wood

Two members of the Class of 1952 have been named to Was Los, the Junior Honorary Society, in the past two weeks. First to be tapped was Bill Schwarz, and this week the group of six initiated Rog Wood.

Schwarz is one of the most active men the College has ever had in the Publications fields. At the present time, he is an Associate Editor of the Royal Gaboon, Organizations Editor of the Hamiltonian, and Feature Editor of the Spectator. A member of ELS, he is also Secretary of the Student Council, a member of the Debate Club, and a regular member of the Dean's List.

President of his class this year, and recently-elected Vice-President for next year, Rog Wood is also a member of the Student Council. Star shortstop of the baseball team last spring, Rog was the leading hitter on the recent southern trip, with an average of .467. He lettered in basketball last year, and will be Rushing Crairman of Delta Upsilon next year. Wood is a member of D. T.

Patterson Appointed President Of W & J

College Choir To Present 1950 Concert

The College Choir, under the direction of Berrian R. Shute and accompained by John L. Baldwin, will present its annual concert in the Chapel tonight.

The first portion of the program is devoted to four songs of a religious nature, including "Laudata Nomen Domini," "Alleluia Psallat," "Plorate, Filii Israel," and "Cantate Domino."

Works by Mozart, Bach, and Handel comprise the second group. The Choir will sing "Ave Verum" and "Dies Irae" by Mozart; "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, and Handel's "Ye House of Gilead," from the "Jeptha" oratorio.

The third group will include four relatively modern songs: "Hush to Peace," by Arne; Jan Sibelius' "Song Now Stilled;" Anton Dvorak's "Heart-Ache;" and a folk-song, "Song to Bohemia," by Taylor.

Solos by Paul Hogan and Barry Hickman will feature the final group. Hogan will sing "Go Down, Moses," the negro spiritual and Hickman will sing the English folk-song, "The Turtle-Dove" and Edvard Grieg's "Land-Sighting." The group will also include a choral rendition of "There Was a Maid Went To The Mill," an old English folk-song.

The Choir, which will close its program with "Carissima," is managed by Jim Brown. Laury Gulick is Assistant Manager, Rich Bennett librarian, and Bob Downing assistant librarian.

Changes In Choir Planned Next Year

A considerable change in the choral music program has been announced for next year by Berrian R. Shute, Director of the Choir.

John Baldwin, present glee club conductor, will have the Chapel Choir next year. Academic credit will be given to those who sing in this choir.

A second organization, under the direction of Professor Shute, will represent the College on tour, and in the oratorio concerts at Christmas and in the Spring. No academic credit will be given to those who sing in this group, and emphasis will be made on secular music.

Professor Shute announced today that, although the personnel of the two groups is expected to overlap somewhat, the rehearsals will not be held together. The Glee Club, as the Concert organization will be known, will practice at "p" hour while the rehearsal time of the Choir has not yet been decided upon.

Mr. Shute also stated that definite plans have been completed for a nation-wide broadcast by the Glee Club in conjuction with the Elmira College for Women Choir. This broadcast will take place an unspecified time next year.

Next Saturday, April 22, "The Mill on the Floss" will be shown as a part of the season ticket series, sponsored by the SCA. For this movie, and "The Thief of Bagdad," which will be shown tonight at 9:30, non-ticket holders will be able to purchase single tickets at the door for $.35.

Hill Prof. Returns To Alma Mater

Professor Boyd Crumrine Patterson, Head of the Department of Mathematics since 1943, has recently been appointed President of Washington and Jefferson College, his alma-mater. He will be the ninth president of W & J since the union of those two college in 1865, replacing James Herbert Case, Jr., brother of Colgate President, Everett N. Case.

Professor Patterson came to Hamilton in 1927, after a year on the faculty of W & J. In 1936 he was made a full professor, and has been head of the department since 1943. To date, no successor to his post has been named.

He graduated from W & J in 1923, majoring in Latin and Greek, and then went on to graduate work at Johns Hopkins University. In commenting on his appointment, he stated that one attraction of W & J is tis similarity to Hamilton. He went on to say that it, like Hamilton, fits in with his ideas of what a small college should be.

The head of the committee of seven to draw up the recently published curriculum report, Professor Patterson is now chairman of the permenent eight-member faculty committee on studies. He is vice-president of the New York State section of the Mathematics Association of America, a member of the American Mathematical Society, Phi Beta Kappa, and Sigma Psi. He will assume his duties at W & J on July 1.

President Patterson

The announcement of the selection of Professor Boyd C. Patterson as ninth President of Washington and Jefferson College comes as little surprise to those of us who are at all acquainted with Mr. Patterson, either in or out of the classroom.

Long recognized by students and faculty alike as an outstanding teacher of Mathematics, Professor Patterson has also been active on the Faculty Committee on Studies, serving as Chairman of that group at the time of the writing of the Curriculum Report of 1947. He will be sorely missed in both capacities.

The Spectator, on behalf of the entire student body, extends congratulations and best wishes to Dr. Patterson in his new position.

Gaboon - - - Opinion Wanted

Tomorrow's appearance of the Royal Gaboon brings with it the necessity of solving many questions of publication policy, tabled since last fall. Does Hamilton College need a humor magazine? Is there a demand for an outlet for student humor writing? Has the Gaboon given evidence of sufficient merit and does it hold promise of continuing worth? If so, should it continue to be published at the expense of its sister publication, or should another source of finance be tapped?

On these and related questions the members of the Publications Board must make decisions within the next few weeks. Board members are anxious to hear considered student opinion on the matter, and welcome any comments or suggestions from any members of the student body. Written comment should be left in the Hamiltonian mailbox in Root Hall.

Following the humor magazine's bid for status as an official publication last fall, the Publications Board gave it temporary recognition with partial financial support derived from cuts in the budgets of the other three publications. By terms of the Board's resolution, the matter is to come up for review after the Gaboon's final appearance, and the decision is to be made "contingent on the Gaboon's demonstration of merit". The Board earnestly solicits the opinion of any interested students.

Newly Installed Latin Plaque In Root Hall May Be Pitfall

Hamilton Students Are Here Forewarned To Have Sight Translation Prepared

A little more than a month and a half ago, there was added to the interesting conglomeration of bulletin boards and mailboxes which grace the walls of the first floor hallway in Root Hall a large bronze plaque bearing a Latin inscription.

Some there were who recognized the plaque as one which for many years had hung in the Chapel on the wall to the (congregation's) left of the chancel. Last winter, as the renovation of the Chapel's interior neared completion, it became quite obvious that a large bronze plaque bearing a Latin inscription could not, in any way, be made to harmonize with the antiseptic whiteness of the Chapel's new "authentic colonial" interior. Consequently, the College's Department of Buildings and Grounds (the Committee on Monuments, Plaques, etc.) was faced with the problem of selecting a new location for the plaque. After considerable discussion and debate, it was decided that of all the suitable locations afforded by our large and beautiful campus, by far the most appropriate one would be the first floor hallway of Root Hall—and for good reason. The plaque is a dedication to Dr. Oren "Square" Root, '56, son of Dr. Oren "Cube" Root, '33, for whom the building is named.

For a short time after the plaque was hung in its new location, it caused considerable commotion. Traffic through the hallway was thrown into maddening confusion by groups of students congregated around it straining to make hasty sight translations. Being equiped with but two or three years of now deplorably rusty high-school Latin, most were forced to give up, though some boasted recognition of a word here and there. In any event, it was not too long before the plaque ceased to attract any widespread attention and traffic through the hallway returned to normalcy.

But although the novelty of the plaque's first appearance has worn off, the matter of its relocation in Root Hall cannot yet be safely dropped and forgotten. As a matter of fact, in its present location, the plaque has generated a rather delicate problem. It has now become imperative that every Hamilton man take it upon himself to prepare a suitably accurate translation of the Latin inscribed thereon, for this reason:

Hamilton advertises itself as a liberal arts college. Any man who, perhaps for this very reason, desires to make application for admission to Hamilton must pass directly in front of this Latin plaque on the way to his interview with the Secretary of Admissions. If he is the curious sort (and what student isn't), quite possibly he will stop and attempt a translation. If un successful, or only moderately successful, he will probably turn to the nearest student and inquire after the meaning on the theoretically sound assumption that any student in a liberal arts college should be able to supply that information upon demand.

Now you can easily see the precarious position this puts each and every one of us in. For as things now stand, with the study of classical languages only very loosely included in Hamilton's "liberal arts" curriculum, the odds are about 60 to 1 that the inquisitive subfreshman will receive a very disappointing answer to his inquiry. This could very well cause him to reconsider his choice of a "Small liberal arts college," and Hamilton might lose a promising, "well-rounded" young young gentleman upon whom it has expended considerable sales talk and "recruiting propoganda." This, of course, would be most unfortunate, possibly even tragic.

Being exteremely anxious to reduce to an absolute minimum the chances that just such an unfortunate incident as that mentioned above will occur, the SPECTATOR, in the interests of service to Hamilton, herewith publishes this translation of the inscription on the bronze plaque.

"To Oren Root, awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts by this college in the year 1856; son of Oren Root similarly honored in the year 1833; born May 18, 1838 and passing his last day at his home on this hill, August 26, 1907; Doctor of Divinity of Rutger's College; Doctor of Humane Letters of Concordia College, Doctor of Laws of the University of Iowa; Professor of Mathematics in this College from the year 1880 until his death; widely experienced in matters pertaining to his Alma Mater; Devoted teacher and kind counselor of many; A faithful and singularly devoted friend to his friends; On account of his most generous services and long offices, a great number of his former friends who esteemed him with an undying affection, remembering his life and now mourning his death, have arranged that this tablet be placed here."

Students bearing the best interests of the College at heart should become sufficiently acquainted with the data and sentiments expressed on this plaque to enable them to venture a tolerable translation upon request.

Samuel Saunders, Prof. Emeritus, Buried Here Wed.

Dr. Samuel J. Saunders, Emeritus Professor of Physics, was buried in the College Cemetery following services in the Chapel on Wednesday, March 29.

Dr. Saunders was an active member of the faculty here from 1892 until his retirement in 1932. He received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Toronto in 1888, and his M. A. from Cornell in 1894. In the same year he received his doctorate from Cornell for his dissertation on "Electrical Waves."

While at Hamilton, he made extensive studies of the penetrating power of X-rays, and the relative merits of Holtz' machine and the induction coil in X-ray work.

In the year 1898-89, he was a Fellow in mathematics at Cornell, and the following year in both physics and mathematics. From 1890 until his appointment as Assistant Professor in physics here in 1892, he was an instructor in physics at cornell.

Honorary bearers at the funeral were President Robert W. McEwen, Dean Winton Tolles, Professors A. P. Saunders, Cleveland K. Chase, Nelson C. Dale, Donald B. Durham, Walter N. Hess, Francis L. Patton, Willard B. Marsh and Thomas B. Rudd and Robert U. Hayes.

Lang Will Head Advertising Dept.

Robert Lang has been named Advertising Manager of Hamilton College Publications for next year, according to an announcement by Donald H. Baldwin, Business Manager, this week. Lang fills the position held until last January by Lyman Stooky.

A sophomore member of Delta Upsilon, Lang has served on the Business Staff for the past two years. He will be in charge of solicitation and administration of all advertising for all official Hamilton College student publications next year.

SPORTS THE SPECTATOR SPORTS
HAMILTON COLLEGE

Along the Sidelines

By Jack Banks

The Old Grad joined the meeting of our Monday Morning Quarterbacks Club out behind home plate the other day. It was a cold afternoon, but the Hamilton nine was practicing despite snow flurries. The Old Grad, who came out bundled up in his racoon coat, is always a welcome addition to our group, and the boys gave him a warm greeting. Soon one of us asked, "How does it look this spring, Old Grad?"

"Yes, I must admit that we are rather weak on the mound," answered the Old Grad. "However, Greg has a few youngsters out there who might prove to be winning pitchers; anyhow, I hope so. But back in the old days, when Hamilton was a power in college sports, we never needed more than one or two pitchers a year. Why, I can remember our teams of '98 and '99—they could have won with the bat boy pitching. Over those two years, we played ninteen games—and won every single one of them! And despite the fact that the baseball used in those days was no more than a lump of mush, we scored 356 runs in those games—an average of 13.5 per game! In fact, in only four of these games did we fail to score over ten runs. What a ball club! We beat the Utica professional team three in a row, the last time by 21-3. Colgate thought they were pretty good until we beat them in four straight games. Toronto even came down to play us in '99, and we beat them, 7-2. Who says you need pitchers?"

Must Have Pitchers

Our Club was very pleased to hear of Hamilton's phenominal teams of '98 and'99, and all of us were smiling like Cheshire cats as the Old Grad finished his report. Presently, though, we began to think over some of the old boy's remarks—and all was not well. Our spokesman then addressed the old gentleman, "Sure, that's fine, Old Grad, but that all happened over fifty years ago. Nowadays, no matter how good a team's hitters are, it must have several pitchers who can win. Just look at the Boston Red Sox last year! And, also when has Hamilton ever had an undefeated team since "99?

Just then Rog Wood cracked out a long, high one to left-center, and we we stopped to look at the outfielder take a last, futile lunge at the ball. When we turned around we discovered that the Ild Grad had escaped and fled to the safety of his ll you of the tennis teams of '94 and '95 some time," beamed the Old Grad as he drove past us on hisway home.

Hill Golf And Tennis Schedule Announced; Prospects Good As Many Veterans Return

With strong nuclei back from last year's excellent teams, both the Hamilton College golf and tennis squads are expecting good seasons again in 1950. The golf team, coached by Don Jones, will open its campaign on April 22, facing R. P. I. at Troy, while Mox Weber's netsters will swing into action on April 29, meeting Utica College in Utica.

Bill Cooper will captain the tennis team this year. Other players to return include Jack Banks, number one man in 1949, Pete Grimm, Lennie Kingsley and Larry Wilson. The squad has been practicing in Utica, and tomorrow they will meet the Utica YMCA.

With five of six veterans of last year's club, which had a record of six wins and four losses returning, hopes are high for one of the top golf teams in Hamilton history. The lettermen who will play include Captain Tom Gregory, Bob Mackay, Bill Luers, Gordie Burton, and Clint Emery.

The Tennis Schedule:

April 28 — at Utica College
May 3 — at Hobart
May 6 — Rochester
May 12 — at Union
May 13 — at Stevens
May 17 — Hobart
May 19 — Utica College
May 20 — at Rochester

Spring Football Encouraging; Coaches Praise Enthusiasm

St. Lawrence Game Concludes Practice

by John McMillan

If there is any relationship between spirit and victories on the athletic field, next fall Hamilton College should have its most outstanding football team since the war.

For the past two weeks Coaches Don Jones and Pete Dugan have been leading a thirty-five man squad through an intensive spring practice despite weather conditions more suitable to hockey than football.

Yesterday Jones said, "Spring practice has really helped us a lot. The line has more zip and fight and the spirit of the whole team is very good." Jones went on to comment that the mud had handicapped his backs in their timing, but he was high in his praise of the forward wall.

Meet St. Lawrence

The early training sessions will wind up next Saturday afternoon with a scrimmage with a powerful St. Lawrence eleven. The competition should give the coaches an excellent indication of how good the Continentals will be, since the Larries are one of the top-rated teams in the state.

Among the Freshmen, Ralph Rogers, Jim Farmer, John Bragdon, Ed Markiewicz, Bob Hendle, and Bill Blood have all shown much improvement over last season. As a result the line problem, which loomed large in November, seems to have been considerably lessened.

Jones has been working with Ron Seaman in the quarter-back slot, and the youthful coach has been very pleased with his showing. Seaman wasn't even on the team in 1949, but next fall he may see a good share of action. Another surprise in the spring sessions is Pete Sullivan, whose play in the full-back slot has been very impressive.

According to Mox Weber, the current sessions have been matched only by Forrest Evashevski's spring practice in 1941. And they were held in the April before Hamilton produced the famed "Big Blue Buzz Saw."

A BIG MAN

Senator Daniel Pratt, of Indiana, was a Hamilton graduate. Mr. Pratt weighed 300 pounds, and had to have a special chair built for him in the Senate chamber.

C. Menges Elected Block "H" Leader By Hill Lettermen

Carl Menges, star fullback on last season's soccer team, was elected president of the Block H Club in the athletic organization's annual elections last Monday. Menges, a junior from Pleasantville, N. Y., and a member of Sigma Phi, succeeds Bob Brown.

Si Keehn, a letterman in lacrosse and a sophomore from Scarsdale, was elected secretary. The new treasurer of the club is Bill Luers, Springfield, Ill., junior who has lettered twice in both basketball and golf. Both Keehn and Luers are Alpha Delts.

Lacrosse "10" Opposes Utica Here Saturday

The lacrosse team rolls into high gear with a scrimmage against Utica Tech tomorrow at 2:30 P. M., at home. Under the direction of Coach John Panatier, the 25-man informal Continental squad is long on scrap and condition but short on experience and reserves. The weakness did not stop the Blue from pasting the Uticans 13-0 in a half-game scrimmage held Tuesday, however, and the team shows promise of surprising one and all.

Panatier has suffered five crippling losses from last year's formal outfit, which won two and lost four. High scorers Dick Baldwin and Gabe Smilkstein departed, as did defensemen Bill Mac Kensie and Randy Amis. Goalie C. A. Griffiths transferred to the baseball team. Smilkstein, Mac Kensie and Amis were all selected for New York State honorable mention last Spring.

The 1950 edition will be led by Co-captains Bill Wilson and Jim Sontheimer who will play on the first attack line with Charlie Reach. Spelling them on the forward line will be Don Dolan, John Messinger and Gil Oster. The midfield has been the hardest hit by losses, including a knee injury to Pete Wood, a key man. Probable starters will be Si Keehn, Chuck Miller and Frank Birdsall. The second line should be made up of Dave and Ed King, and Pete Hinchcliff. Also out for midfield are Carl Zanger, Bob Cornelius and John Silvernail.

Ric Miller will lead Hal Ferris, George Hunger and Dave Hayter on the defense and the

Baseball Team Finishes Trip With 1-4 Slate

By Larry Rouillard

The Hamilton College baseball team, lacking in outdoor practice prior to the Southern trip, concluded the 5-game tour with a 6-3 triumph over Drew University after four successive defeats.

Roanoke (23-6), Lynchburg (7-3), and Hampden-Sydney (28-4), copped official games from the Blue. In a four-and-one-half inning contest, Upsala, was on the long end of an 8-2 score.

Outstanding for the Continentals was shortstop Roger Wood, who hit .467, collecting seven hits in fifteen trips and who fielded .914, handling 32 of 35 chances successfully. Despite a sore arm, southpaw Tony Sleggs in a 7-inning relief role against Drew looked impressive yielding seven hits, all singles, and a pair of runs. Captain Jerry Steiner, who moved in from the outfield to third base fielded .923 and tied Wood for the most runs scored at 4.

Persons Hurt

Al Persons, retired by injuries after the first two games, batted .375, including a brace of doubles. Dick Norcross in the outfield and catcher Don Grant showed up well in their first intercollegiate contests.

The over-all statistics showed that the Blue hit for an average of .191 compared to the .351 mark of the opposition. Defensively, the Continentals committed 26 errors for an average of .865 while the opponents, erring ten times, fielded .940.

After being set down in order for the first three frames, three walks, an error by the pitcher, and Dick Norcross' single were good for three runs against Drew who promptly knotted the score in their half with three hits and a base on balls.

Wood scored the deciding run in the sixth after walking, reaching third on an error by the second basemen Hane, and then tallying on a double steal, engineered with Bud Griffith.

The Continentals lost a 1-0 first inning lead in the first game when Roanoke sent 18 men to the plate in the second inning to score 13 runs on eight hits, including a double and triple, four passes, and two errors. The final was 23-6.

Doss' two-run homer in the first inning off Harry Babcock put Lynchburg out in front to stay after Steiner had put the Blue one-up following a double by Persons, and the first of Wood's three hits.

A 21-hit barrage, collected in bunches, gave a classy Hampden-Sydney nine a lopsided 28-4 triumph in six innings as seven errors and nine walks

SPORT NOTES

Hamilton College's Athletic Council will decide in the next few weeks whether Hamilton will join the newly-formed New York State Hockey League, Director of Athletics Weber reported today. Other colleges tentatively slated to associate with the loop include St. Lawrence, West Point, Colgate, Williams, R. P. I., and Clarkson.

The decision to ets up the league was reached at a hockey coaches' convention in Boston before spring vacation. First news of the arrangement was reported in a New York Times dispatch, datelined Hamilton, N. Y., on March 26.

Dave Nadal was named to the Clarkson all-opponent hockey team, it was learned this week. The squad includes two Dartmouth pucksters, a pair of St. Lawrence players and Don Smith of Colgate as well as Nadal.

Hobart College is currently conducting its first spring football practice in the 59-year gridiron history of the Geneva institution. The sessions are slated to last for a month.

The Statesmen's 1950 schedule calls for six games, with Hamilton providing the opposition for the season's final contest on November 11, the Saturday before the Continentals meet Union.

John Bailey, Freshman left-handed pitcher, broke his ankle, sliding into home plate Monday afternoon at baseball practice. He will be out for the rest of the season.

Blue Track Team Expecting Strength In Running Events

Although severly hampered by the cold weather, Coach Pete Dugan is rather enthusiastic about Hamilton track prospects for this season. Dugan expects that he will have strength in the running events, but will be weak in the field activities, just the reverse of the situation in 1949, when the Continentals succeeded in winning only one of five meets.

In the dashes the Blue are well set. Co-Captain Dave Palmer will probably lead a large

Hill Eligibility Rules Retained For Next Year

Faculty's OK Allows First-Year Athletes To Remain Eligible

Freshmen at Hamilton College will be eligible to compete in varsity intercollegiate athletic contests for at least one more year, it was announced this week by Director of Athletics Mox A. Weber.

Action, continuing present eligibility requirements for the academic year 1950-51, was taken at a recent meeting of the faculty, upon the recommendation of the Athletic Department and the joint student-faculty committee on athletics.

Hamilton is allowed to use freshmen in intercollegiate sports by the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference which exempts colleges with a male enrollment of less than 1,000 from the freshman rule.

Weber Comments

In making the announcement, Mr. Weber said, "At the present time due to the size of our student body in relation to the enrollment of the colleges we play, it is absolutely necessary to use freshmen on intercollegiate teams." He pointed out that, "The only school we play in either football or hockey which is our size, Haverford, uses freshmen."

The rule, prohibiting freshmen from varsity competition, was put into effect to prevent "tramp athletes" from playing in college athletic events. In schools like Hamilton this is not a problem and is not expected to become one.

It is also felt that Junior Varsity teams, which Hamilton fields in all major sports except swimming and track, provides an outlet for the first year student who can not play varsity ball, but would play on a Frosh team.

Continental Editor Names Freshman, Larom, For Staff

Henry N. Larom, '53, has been named to the Continental Literary Board, Continental editor Don Roscher announced this week. Larom thus becomes the first freshman to hold such a position since Roscher.

Roscher also announced that Al Flesh has been named the new Chairman of the Special Effects Board, a position left vacant with the graduation of Don Birkby in February. Nat Mann held this post for a month, but has been relieved of the work in order to devote all his time to a critical essay on the literary work of Wendell Wilcox, which will appear in the graduation issue of the Continental.

Both Flesh andMann will retain their seats on the Literary Board, Roscher stated.

Mallory Stephens has been named chairman of the committee on arrangements for the Senior Class Ball, scheduled for May 20, according to announcement from Class President Ace Lawrence this week. Assisting Stephens on the committee are: Jerry Steiner, Bob Messenger, Bill Tank, George Ridge, and Jim Sontheimer.

However, it is not known whether Jake Heinig's injured shoulder will permit him to match his previous efforts with the javelin. Moreover Dugan Dugan has yet to find a high jumper to replace Paul Langa.

Sigs Win Swimming, Bowling Laurels; Softball Starts Soon

Sigma Phi completed a clean sweep of the Hamilton intramural swimming meets Wednesday afternoon by beating ELS, 46-43, and thus winning the swimming championship. Early in the year, the Sigs won the first of the two all-college meets.

Yesterday the Sigs, also 1950 hockey champs, captured the bowling title by downing Psi U, 3-0. Rod Gadner scored the high single with a 201 effort. Dave Porter's 182 was best for Psi U. Sig lost only one game all season, that to Lambda Chi.

Outstanding for the winners in the swimming meet were Bud Menges, Bill Saunders, Gerry Maas, and Harry Bates. However the top natator of the affair was DKE's Ed Jack.

Intramural softball competition will get underway as soon as the fields are in shape, Council Chairman Ronnie Berg announced today. Twelve teams will compete for the title which is currently held by Lambda Chi. During the 1950 campaign Alpha Chi will unite with the independants to form a single club.

INTRAMURAL NOTES: The annual intracollege track meet will be held next Wednesday, weather permitting...Berg expressed hopes today that the tennis and golf tournaments, not completed last Fall, will be wound up before June...The Block H Club has decided to award the Intramural Council chairman with a Block H sweater. Berg is the first person to be so honored...Ric Miller was the winner of the handball tourney...The Intramural Council will revive the practice this spring of making awards at a Wednesday chapel meeting in late May.
